

MOTORSPORT AUSTRALIA 2022 NSW KHANACROSS SERIES REGULATIONS

The NSW Khanacross Series will be conducted under the Motorsport Australia National Khanacross Code and the NSW Khanacross Championship Regulations.

1. Definition

The Motorsport Australia 2022 NSW Series will be conducted during 2022, in which the outright placings count towards the awarding of the title of Motorsport Australia 2022 NSW Khanacross Series Winner.

2. Points Allocation

a. Points based on outright placings will be allocated as follows:

1st – 15 points

2nd – 14 points

3rd – 13 points

and so on to 15th place – 1 point

Points based on class placings will be allocated as follows:

1st – 10 points

2nd – 9 points

3rd – 8 points

and so on to 10th place – 1 point

b. All points earned will count towards the Series if only 2 or less rounds are conducted. Otherwise, points will be calculated on the following basis:

2 best results if 3 rounds are conducted

3 best results if 4 rounds are conducted

4 best results if 5 rounds are conducted

4 best results if 6 rounds are conducted

5 best results if 7 rounds are conducted

6 best results if 8 rounds are conducted

7 best results if 9 rounds are conducted

8 best results if 10 rounds are conducted

c. If competitors tie at a round, the total points for the place that they have collectively filled shall be equally shared among them.

d. If at the end of a series, two or more competitors have an equal number of points, they will attain equal status.

3. Courses

a. There shall be a minimum of four and a maximum of twelve courses.

The layouts of the courses may be mirrored or reversed. The courses may also be run more than once in the same direction.

- b. In the event of conditions being deemed unsatisfactory by the Clerk of the Course, a minimum of four courses may be used to decide series placings.

4. Timing

Timing will be by stop watches or electronic timing. Two watches per test operated by different officials, with one watch to be the master watch and the other as back up.

Timing shall be to 0.01 of a second and recorded.

Timing may be supplied to all competitors by the organising club and times for each test recorded on same after each run.
