NAVIGATOR

All drivers, co-drivers and navigators must submit an application.

Criteria

In order to participate in Motorsport Australia sanctioned Tarmac Rallies as a driver, co-driver or navigator in the Category A competition, an applicant must complete an application for a Motorsport Australia Tarmac Rally Category A endorsement.

Category A Tarmac Rally competition is defined as an outright competition with a maximum speed of 200km/h. Refer to Rally Standing Regulations - National Rally, Attachment A - Tarmac Rallies Article 2(b)(iii).

The completed application must be submitted to Motorsport Australia Rally Department by emailing rally@motorsport.org.au

To qualify for a Motorsport Australia Tarmac Rally Category A endorsement each applicant must satisfy one of the following criteria. Drivers and co-drivers must not have accrued six or more demerit points within a two-year period (refer Article 2(e)(i) Attachment A - Rally Standing Regulations - National Rally):

(tick all satisfied criteria)

(Competition history can be described on page three of this application)

- 1. Competed in a minimum of one Tarmac Rally Category A Competition within the last 24 months
- 2. Competed in a minimum of two Tarmac Rally Category A Competitions within the last 5 years; and
  - will be competing at the upcoming Tarmac Rally in a vehicle of the same make and model; or
  - having finished within the top 25% of the field at both of those events
- 3. Competed and finished in a minimum of two Tarmac Rally Category B Competitions within the last 24 months
- 4. Received a Tarmac Rally Category A Endorsement within the last 24 months

Notwithstanding the above criteria, participation may be permitted on a case-by-case basis where the individuals satisfy Motorsport Australia that one of the following requirements have been met:

- 5. Observed at two Motorsport Australia sanctioned Rally events having demonstrated a high level of vehicle control and course awareness in the past three years

A submission to rally@motorsport.org.au with supporting references including a No Incident Confirmation Letter from the Clerk of the Course of each such event must be received four weeks prior to the upcoming Tarmac Rally event.
- 6. International Competitor and have submitted a Foreign Participation in National Events Visa application along with this application

All drivers, co-drivers and navigators must submit a Tarmac Rally Category A endorsement application prior to submitting an event entry for an upcoming Motorsport Australia sanctioned Tarmac Rally.

Eligible drivers, co-drivers and navigators will be issued a 'Tarmac Rally Category A Endorsement' which is valid for that competition year only and will appear on a competitors Member Portal.

Motorsport Australia reserves the right to exercise their discretion when issuing a 'Tarmac Rally Category A Endorsement'.

Entry into the Outright Category in any Tarmac Rally is in the discretion of the Organiser.
